Skin trouble costs many a man his job

No matter how efficient a man may be, if he has an ugly skin eruption, there are positions in which he cannot be tolerated. He may know that it is not in the least contagious, but other people are afraid, they avoid him, and he must make way for a man with a clear, healthy skin. Why run this risk, when

BIG DELEGATIONS AT ROAD DINNER

Friday Meeting to Assume Convention Proportions.

"COIN" HARVEY IS COMING

Many Towns in Two States Want Ozark Trail.

The informal good roads meeting scheduled for tomorrow noon, when W. H. "Coin" Harvey of Mount Ne, Ark., president of the Ozark Trails association, will be the guest of the Oklahoma Retailers' association at a luncheon, gave promise today of developing into a miniature convention.

A large delegation of good roads boosters from the Mangum district, one of the three sections seeking the Ozark Trail southwest of here, arrived in Oklahoma City today and brought the news that the representatives of several other towns along the line will be here to meet Mr. Harvey.

Personnel of Party.
Those in the party arriving today were R. A. Singletary of Mangum, secretary of the retailers' organization in that city; H. E. Hoar, H. W. Lovett, C. P. Hamilton, H. Mathewson, Ed. Mathewson, S. A. Heatley and A. M. McKinney, all representing the Southwestern Ozark Trails association.

Mr. Singletary informed Secretary Whitten of the local retailers' association that Hadley, Clarendon and Granite, Texas, and Reed, Venison, Granite, Lone Wolf, Hobart, Goshen, Mountain View, Carnegie, Fort Cobb, Anadarko, Verden, Chickasha and Pottawatomie, Okla., would send representatives to Friday's meet.

Other Representatives.
Representatives also will be here from towns along the scenic route, which goes through Lawton and Fort Sill, and from the northern route, El Reno, Geary, Clinton and Elk City.

These three sections are making a hard fight for the Ozark trail.

Secretary Whitten said today that not less than 100 good roads enthusiasts would be at Friday's session, at which time Mr. Harvey will set the date for the big good roads gathering here in November.

Unpaid telephone bills for the month of September are past due. If not paid by 5 p. m. of the 15th service will be discontinued. Pioneer Tel. & Tel. Co.—Adv.

WASHING MACHINE PLANT LIKELY TO COME HERE

Iowa Manufacturer Attracted to This City for Location of Factory.

Washing machines may be added in the near future to the hundreds of different articles manufactured and wholesaled in Oklahoma City.

H. E. Gove of Mason City, Iowa, owner of a large manufacturing plant there, has been in the city for several days in consultation with officials of the Chamber of Commerce. He manufactures a standard washer which has an extensive market in the United States.

Chance to Make Money.
His factory was originally located at Newton, Iowa, but some time ago, when he was offered an opportunity to purchase several large industrial buildings in Mason City, he moved. Meanwhile the value of the property has greatly increased in value and recently he was offered a much larger sum for the buildings than originally paid.

Inasmuch as there are eighteen washing machine companies in Iowa, Mr. Gove began looking about for another location. He decided upon Oklahoma because only one other company manufacturing machines is located in the state.

This City Attracts Him.
Oklahoma City's transportation and distribution facilities brought him here and it is not unlikely that if he can secure suitable quarters he will move his plant and workmen to this city.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD

Important meeting tonight. Come out—Adv.

PROBLEMS Of The HEART

By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.

DEAR MRS. THOMPSON—I am 26 years old and I am engaged to a man that my parents do not like. He is very quiet and is not good looking. I love him and it hurts me to have them feel the way they do. The man I am engaged to is making $50 a month and I am making $40. Do you think it would be a mistake for me to marry if I go right on working? I dread the thought of being an old maid, and if I do not marry now I am afraid I always shall be. My parents say such cutting things and so do my sisters that I would like to get away. Do you think I should marry now?

UNHAPPY GIRL.
An old maid's list is not nearly so miserable as that of a wife unhappily married. Give up the idea of seeking after marriage. You cannot win the two successfully. Surely you do not think of marriage without children, and if you have them the little folk will need your undivided attention. Sixty dollars is not enough to live on and so you better give up the idea of marriage until circumstances are more favorable. Twenty-six is not old and there is no reason for you to look upon marriage as hopeless.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am 17 years old and I consider myself old enough to be respected, but I have a brother who humiliates me all the time. When young men come to see me he comes in the room where I am entertaining and he makes very rude remarks. I have spoken to my mother and father of this but they do nothing. My brother is 14 and ought to know better. What shall I do?

ELLOENCE.
Bribe your brother to stay out. Tell him that you will make him really or give him a nickel if he doesn't appear during the evening. All boys of 14 like to hear you yell and nothing by complaining to your parents and you will gain much if you make it appear desirable to him to stay away.

SALE OF STATE FARM LAND IS CALLED OFF

Question of Advertising's Legality Causes Cancellation Pending Opinion.

Question as to the legality of the advertising for sale land upon which is located the State Farm will hold up a sale planned for 10 o'clock today, as predicted in the final edition of the Times yesterday. This was decided yesterday at a meeting of school land commissioners, who are awaiting an opinion from Attorney General Freeling.

It is the contention of Secretary Lyon that instead of being advertised under the law relating to rural tracts, it should have been described as "extra land."

Under the first method of sale, the land is sold with an initial payment of 5 percent of its valuation, the remaining payments being in forty installments. If the State Farm tract is decided to be extra land, 10 percent of its price must be paid down and the remainder liquidated in ten installments.

"Crossed Trails"

Next Week—"THE GOAT."

(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"SURE I will. Nothing else we can do, is there?"

"I think not just now, thanks. Well, I'll be moving. See you again before very long."

Down at Grape Street police station, Mr. Brean was seated in his cell discussing with appetite an excellent meal which he had had sent in. He nodded as the jailer admitted Paxton.

"Sit right down, Mr. Paxton. Sorry I can't offer you better accommodation, but in a day or two's time—Well, how goes it? Strikes me you'll hear some nasty things from the magistrate tomorrow when you haven't a shred of evidence to offer against me."

The inspector stretched out his feet. "We're only giving evidence of arrest tomorrow, Mike. We're going to ask for a remand."

"What's that?" The question was snapped out like a pistol shot. Mike was startled, and for once he showed it.

"You can't do that. I'll have an action against you for false imprisonment as it is."

"Sorry," murmured Paxton apologetically. "I know you'd like to be out just now, but it can't be done. Now, if you could tell us something about your movements during the last six months—something you know we could test—"

Brean eyed him uneasily. "How can I do that?" he remonstrated. "I've been all over the place."

"Happen to run across Khaki Annie during that time?"

The other's face had become perfectly blank. He was thoroughly on his guard.

"Annie?" he repeated indifferently. "Why, I haven't seen her for over a year."

"Really, I thought she was a pal of yours. You'll be sorry to hear that she's been arrested down in Sussex for murder."

Brean nodded as casually as though the other were merely remarking that it was a fine day.

"That so? Well, it's a mistake, I guess. Annie wouldn't hurt a fly."

"Ever hear of Mordant Peck?"

"I seem to know the name—can't trace him, though. Say, Mr. Paxton, what are you driving at? What's all this about Khaki Annie and a murder got to do with me anyway?"

"I don't know," returned Paxton thoughtfully. "Thought perhaps you'd be sorry to see Annie in it."

"Oh, she'll be all right," returned Brean easily. "You take it from me. Glad you think so. An idea was crystallizing in Paxton's brain. "By the way, Mike, who's your dentist?"

He laid his hand on the bell push.

The New Shoes Are—EXPRESSIVE!

The styles of the season run to novelty—or, perhaps it is better to say individuality. No doubt Shakespeare was more prophetic and better inspired than he knew when he tossed off the quip, "Nay, her foot speaks." It does speak in this season's shoe fashions, for they are nothing if not expressive. But the shoes at Kerr's are not only novel and beautiful, they are in addition, sound and of craftsman-like workmanship—long, lasting service in them. Mere prettiness has not atrophied our sense of wear-value.

Brown Kid Lace Boots, white stitching, turn soles—$8.
Gray Kid Lace Boots, gray back, turn soles—$7.50.
Gotham Black Kid High Top Lace

Boots—white stitching, welt soles—$8.00.
Mahogany Brown Kid Lace Boots—welt soles—$8.00.
Tan Calf Lace Boots—hand made, high arch, extension turn soles—$9.

went to market." Wonder if it went in cramping, pinching shoes? If it did, it was doomed for life. Probably it doubled up or grew hunch-backed or developed a corn. The time to train for healthy and perfect feet in a human being is infancy and childhood. The way is to buy shoes that are scientifically correct, and perfectly fitted. These are such shoes and that is the manner of our fitting.

"Acrobat" Shoes for Children—black calf in lace or button, white stitching, 5 to 8 at $2.50, 8 1/2 to 11 at $2.75, 11 1/2 to 2 at $3.
Kewpie Twins School Shoes in black or tan calfskin and patent—5 to 8 at $2.50, 8 1/2 to 11 at $2.75, 11 1/2 to 2 at $3.

High Kid Button Boots with white stitching—5 to 8 at $2.50, 8 1/2 to 11 at $2.75.

Taffeta Petticoats With Poplin Ruffles

Sell at $2.50, $3.50 and $5. They are shaped according to the new styles. Not a bad idea to buy the new petticoats along with the new suits.

We have picked the very choicest of the season's modes. Petticoats were never prettier.

Lesser Silk Petticoats, finished with ruffled panels, scalloped edge ribbon trimmed—$12.50.

Jersey Silk Petticoats—dressed flounces, trimmed in fluted silk. New suit styles—$8.50.

Chiffon Taffeta Petticoats—dresses, finished in flounces, elegantly with rib.

Taffeta Silk Petticoats—full ruffled flounces, green, blue and champagne—$10.

A Miscellany

Embroidered baby flannels, skirt lengths at $6.

Clumsy namoon, 10 yard pieces, stripes, and checks, 43 inches wide, $2.00.

Kerr's chiffon namoon, 30 inches wide, 10 yard pieces—$4.50.

Longcloth, 10 yard pieces, 30 inches wide, $1.50 and $1.80.

Linens, Bedspreads, Towels for those who expect visitors during the fair.

Better Clothes For Boys and Less to Pay—at Kerr's

It does not admit of argument, at least not in this particular case. The department store, with its low overhead expense can and does undersell boys' clothing. Our suits are dollars better than the average about town. And that is not mere gossip, not hearsay. We know of a knowledge derived from accurate, unbiased comparisons.

- Boys' Autumn and Winter Suits and Overcoats, 2 1/2 to 18 years. $5 to $15.
- Boys' Reefer Suits, 2 to 10 years. Blue serges, velvets, checks, etc. $3.50 to $8.50.
- Mothers' Favorite Suits, Norfoks, box and double-breasted styles. $5 to $15.
- Boys' Madras Blouses, 75c and $1.00. Others at 50c.

able to let a dead body encountered in the way of business upset his appetite as is a doctor. He fingered even the charred bones of the dead man with unfeigned interest and even when his country colleague's attention was distracted—slipped one in his pocket for further purposes.

There was Peck's watch, a fused mass of metal; a ruined bunch of keys; a few metal suspender-buttons; and, curiously enough, an almost miniature set of false teeth. These latter Paxton also picked up and placed in his pocket.

"I think that's about all," he remarked. "It's a ghastly show, as you say."

"But early yet to ask whether you've formed any opinion, I suppose?" said the other man deferentially.

"Well, I never like to be certain," said Paxton reflectively. "but I don't mind saying this. Whoever has committed murder, Mrs. Mordant Peck hasn't. I reckon we'll get along. I want to telephone and there's a letter I'll have to send to town."

At half past twelve the next morning a discreet tap at Loure's door heralded the entrance of Detective Inspector Paxton, spruce and debonaire.

"Morning, Mr. Loure," he said cheerfully. "Feel inclined for a little run up west?"

New Ministers to America

ATHENS, Sept. 14.—(Via Paris.)—The Official Journal today publishes the nomination of D. Cacaciamanos as Greek minister to the United States. M. Cacaciamanos, who was formerly minister to Italy, will succeed Agamemnon Schliemann, who was called home in September, 1914. Since then A. Venous has been acting charge d'affaires in the Greek legation at Washington.

Five excellent vaudeville acts will be seen on the Liberty theater's new program for the last half of the week beginning at today's matinee performance. A brief, but varied program of photographs also will be included in the new offering. The new acts are secured from a Chicago agent who handled the acts for one of the big-time circuits, and the bill promises to embrace variety and comedy in splendid measure. This bill will be repeated until Sunday when the program changes.

There will be a balloon ascension at Belle Isle Sunday evening, weather permitting, to Mrs. LaBelle. The Rendall balloon company of this city, which has conducted all balloon ascensions at Belle Isle this season, will close its engagement Sunday, September 25. All regular amusements are still open, except the dance hall which is open Sunday evenings only.

At The THEATRES

Empress.
Following her thrilling romance in "Sins and Saviors," little Marguerite Clark is starred by the Famous Players-Lasker company in an entirely new extravaganza, "Little Lady Brown." The scenes of this play are laid on the Bering and Ale where Miss Clark has an opportunity to introduce on the screen a new character, that of a typical little Irish lassie. The pictures will be offered Friday and Saturday at the Empress. To—

Lyric.
"From Fern to Valparaiso" is the title of a spectacular comedy presented by Green, McHenry and Deane on the new bill at the Lyric. Mahoney and Rogers, who last season with Ben Tanager, made a superb record in their newly created offering, Katherine Challenor and company in a sketch called "Uninvited," have 1,000-lb. power. This act is a headliner. There are three other acts on the bill, including the famous Four Kings.

TAKES THE PLACE OF DANGEROUS CALOMEL

New Discovery! Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Like Calomel But Doesn't Gripe, Salivate or Make You Sick—Don't Lose a Day's Work—Harmless Liver Medicine for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and grumping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated, or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste. —Adv.
